SESSION SPEAKERS

Rich Bowlin

After a 30-year career as an attorney, Rich became CEO of UMF in 2014. He has served in numerous leadership roles both in the local church and across the conference. He and his wife have daughter and a grandson.

Kellie Gallagher

An ordained elder in the NCCUMC, Kellie serves as the pastor of First UMC Laurinburg. She loves reading, European river cruising, watching Carolina Hurricanes hockey with her husband Paul and spending way too much time designing graphics on Canva for her church.

Robert Gallaher

A retired physician, he enjoys volunteering with the Boy Scouts, his local hospital, and church. He and his wife are active members of Queen Street UMC, where they sing in the choir. They have two sons and four grandchildren. His hobbies include woodworking, cooking, and fishing.

David Haley

A semi-retired Elder in the NCCUMC, he has served more than 50 years as a youth minister and pastor, including years in prison ministry. He now serves part-time on staff at Wrightsville UMC. An avid snow skier and international traveler, he and his wife have three adult children and six grandchildren.

Lynn Benson

An ordained deacon in NCCUMC and serving as Director of Legacy Giving at UMF. Lynn blends her love for stewardship with a background in finance and Christian education. She enjoys leading small-group studies and gardening. She and her husband have two children and two grandchildren.

Reginald Ponder

A retired elder in NCCUMC, has served nine congregations and held numerous Conference and Jurisdictional appointments. Now part of the Six Forks church community, Reggie spends time with his three great-grandchildren, playing golf with his son, and cheering on NC State Women's Basketball.
